WELCH MURDER TRIAL

The Evidence Being taken in the Noted Philippi Case.

THE EXPERT MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

What Each Side Expects to Prove. Mr. and Mrs. Russel do not Look Like Murderers-The Mystery Surrounding the Death of the Husband of the Murdered Woman Thirteen Years Ago-An Interesting Story.

Epecial Dispatch to the Intelligencer

PHILIPPI, W. Va., June 29.—The In-terest manifested in the trial of the case of the state vs. F. M. and Margeret Russel, charged with murder, as narrated in to-day's Intelligences, as harrand in to-day's Intelligences, shows no signs of abating. Dr. S. McDaniel was on the stand most of the forencen yes-terday, and several hypothetical ques-tions were propounded to him. The doctor seemed equal to the occasion. his answers indicating that he is well up in his profession. About the same questions were asked Dr. J. W. Bosworth. and he gave equally as intelligentroplies. The rigid cross-examination by Attorney Dayton failed to "shatter" any part of their testimony. Dr. Isaac Smith, who was summoned for the defense, was exceed.

who was summoned for the defense, was excused.

Willia Welch, the son of Mrs. Amanda Welch, who died from the effects of the poisonous drug, was on the witness stand a long time. It was brought out of him that he and his mother had a few sharp words just before he left home to see his aweatheart on the evening of March 24, his mother being much opposed to his paying attentions to the Taylor county maiden. It would be well to state here that Willia was held by the coroner's juryas an accessory to the crime, but was released at the pre-liminary hearing before Justices C. C. Hovatter and E. B. Hudkins here the last of April.

last of April.

The prosecution will attempt to show that the motive of Russel and wife for poisoning Mrs. Welch was that Mrs. Welch had a life time right, in about twenty acres of poor land, and that in the event of her death he, Russel, and his wife, would fall joint heirs thereto in consection with the aforesaid Willie Welch; and that Russel had made repeated threats that he would put her out of the way sooner or later.

SOME OF THE EVIDENCE.

SOME OF THE EVIDENCE.

The pressention has shown that Mrs. Russel was there on the eve of March Justice was those on the eve of March 24, but can not prove that F. M. ("Major") Russel was there any time during the day. All his neighbors call him "major," but it has not been shown in evidence how he acquired his military title. It has also been proved that Mrs. Russel, who was present at her dead mother's residence on the 25th, objected to some of the neighbors, women who were present, making coffee in the now famous coffee pot. It may be that Mrs. Russel can explain why she so objected when she comes on the stand, and it is hoped that she will. J. W. Robinson, deputy sheriff and jailor, was on the stand for the prosecution; as "Major" Russel has carried on an extensive coarespondence with his friends since his incarceration and Robinson has read and taken copies of all his letters. Objection to their introduction was made by Mr. Dayton, and their contents have not yet been divulged.

The attornoys for the defendants claim that they will furnish evidence to show that the arsenic found in the stomach of Mrs. Welch by Chemist Whitehill was injected into it after the pest mortem examination and before it reached the chemist.

ANOTHER MYSTERY. 24, but can not prove that F. M. ("Ma-

ANOTHER MYSTERY.

There was a shroud of mystery surrounding the death of Anthony Wolch, husband of Mrs. Amanda Welch, which husband of Mrs. Amanda Welch, which has never been banished to this day. On the morning of July 18th, 1881, the dead body of Mr. Welch was found in a patch of tail weeds by his hog-pen near his house at Popper, this county, (where the present tragedy took place), with his throat cut from ear to ear, and otherwise mutilated. A coroner's jury falled to place the responsibility of the crims on any one and announced a verdict of suicide. Mr. Welch was alone at his house that night, his wife, daughter and son, the aforesaid Willie, being at a "wake" at a neighbor's house the previous night, not returning till morning, and made the awful discovery that the husband and father was still in death. "Major" Russel was at that time a suitor of Margaret Welch, (now Mrs. Russell,) but Mr. Welch objected to him paying attentions to his daughter and had given him orders to keep, away from his house as well as his daughter. Another man named Davis egainst when snareleon was directed was said

Another man named Davis against whom anapicion was directed was said to have forged Welch's name to a note and would have been prosecuted had Welch lived. Davis left the county soon afterward and it is said that he is now doing time in the ponitontiary in one of the western states for murder.

To take a look at "Major" Russel you would not say he was, a bad man, ay he has none of the criminal look bout him, and Mrs. Russel is a harmiss-looking woman, who would apparently be incapable of participating in stack an awful crime as she and the Trajob" are charged with. She is about third years old and he is thirty-five. On the last day of the inquest, when Mrs. Russel heard that she had been held for the crime by the coronor's jury isheleft her house and started toward the creek, which rans near by, and when she reached the bank she plunged in, but "Major" had followed her, and he jumped in also, and brought her out with difficulty. They have a family of three small children, and much sympathy is manifested for the little ones. Attornoys Peck and Dayton will doubtless make brilliant arguments, while the Messrs. Woods will be sure to retain their well established reputations as attorneys.

CRISP GRATIFIED

With the Dispatch of Business by the House-No "Irritating Delays."

Washingrow, D. C., June '20,- "I am gratified," said Speaker Crisp to a reporter of the Associated Press, "at the expedious and satisfactory manner in which the present house of representatives has dispatched public business."

which the present house of representatives has dispatched public business."

In view of the near approach of the close of the seasion Mr. Crisp had been requested to outline the general features of legislation accomplished by the house and what remained to be done to round out the work of the session.

"We have been singularly free from exasperating delays," said the speaker, "and the great questions of tariff and finance have been acted upon by the house with exceptional promptness, considering the vast interests involved. And yet there has been no curtailment of reasonable debate and we have heard very little complant or criticism on that acore. On the other hand fillustering is practically a thing of the past and the house has experienced little or no delay for the mere sake of delay."

The speaker was asked to enumerate the leading measures passed by the house. "The tariff bill naturally comes first," said he, "Its passage by the house was attended by few delays. The extra seasion permitted the organization of committees, so that the ways and means committee was well on with its work before the day Congress usually assembles, and the bill was actually presented early in January, when as a usual thing the committees are just beginning to organize. In the debate also there was no wasting of time, and I think Chairman Wilson succeeded in satisfying both sides of the hques that he desired to be fair and yet to satisfy the public that the bill should be brought to a vote ofter fair discussion. "On the financial question," continued the speaker, "we have also avoided irritating delays. When business depression of last summer brought on the widespread public demand for repeal of the purchase clause of the Sherman act the house met in extraordinary session and quickly performed congress. These oppesing the repeal recognized the propriety of allowing the louse to reach a vote without delay, and an agreement to that effect was made and executed."

PITIABLE CONDITION

Of the Coxcyttes About Washington-Ap

pealing to Congressmen For Assistance.
Washington, June 29.—Pressure of an unforeseen and undesired sort is being brought to bear upon members of Congress by the numerous industrial armies encamped about Washington. The nevelty of the presence of these unique organizations has departed, and consequently local donations of provisions have inlen off until the men are in a pitiable condition for want of food. Every day the lobbies are besigged by desertors from Generals and Admirals Coxoy, Fitzgerald, Calvin and Frye who are wearied of husks, and auxious to return home. Naturally, they came to congressmen from their states for assistance. In some cases members have yielded to their charitable impulses and furnished funds for the purpose, thereby establishing a precedent which encouraged other needy Coxeyites to apply. Ohio members are the greatest sufferers in this way, and the demands upon them are mere than they can meet. The novelty of the presence of these as to the carb which the officers from the navy department gave to the inspection of armor work at the shops. He said one, and sometimes two, officers came to the shops every day. They came rarely until the investigation began.

Representative Talbott asked Corey if he had not made false reports of the certain specified estimates. He said he had omitted to furnish certain features of work to the government officers. It had not amounted to false reports. He disclaimed knowledge of Superintendent Cline's admission that he had changed reports in order to keep government officers from fussing.

city in November found expression at a meeting held in this city at which steps were taken looking toward a thorough overhauling by the courts of the books of General Secretary-treasurer John w. Hayes. The meeting adopted an appeal to the order which says: "Among the reasons which have impelled the signers to the course which they have taken are the following:
"Because in consequence of being engaged in outside schemes, the general officers are neglecting the duties which they are neglecting the duties which they are neglecting the interest of the order. Because of this negligence proof is shown in the establishment of a gas plant at Ephrata, at a capitalization of $50,000, among the incorporators being Thomas B. McGuire and Jacob G. Shoenfarber.
"Because proof is further shown in a dispatch received from Hastings, Neb., on the 19th inst, which stated that the gas plant and nine miles of mai, the property of that town, had been purchased by John W. Hayes, Thomas B. McGuire and Jacob Shoenfarber, for the sum of $60,000.

"Because we have learned through a reliable source that a judgment note for the sum of $20,000 has been given by the present general officers against the property of the order at No. 814 North Brond street, Philadelphia.

"Because we believe the funds of the order are being illegally expended.
"Because an impenetrable vell of secresy has been drawn over the general treasury of the order, as thegeneral sceneral treasury of the order, as thegeneral sceretary-treasurer has failed to comply with the constitutional provision that instructs him to furnish quarterly to state, national trade and district assemblies an itemized statement of all receipts and expenditures.

"Because plans have been laid by the present general officers by which they hope to hold the salaried positions, elective and appointive in and under the general assembly.

"Therefore, we are forced to resort to legal process and have decided to enter the courts to compel a fluancial accounting that we believe will result in expensive confirmatory of our gravest suspictors.
